

Some connections between attractors and low dimensional topology

Héctor Barge

Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

`h.barge@upm.es`

In this talk we survey some results regarding the realizability problem of attractors in the 3-dimensional euclidean space. We present a complete solution for an interesting class of continua known as knotted toroidal sets. We also present some partial results for more general continua.

(joint work with J.J. Sánchez-Gabites)