

Closed discrete sets and continuous functions

Alan Dow

UNC Charlotte

`adow@uncc.edu`

Every discrete set of cardinality less than the first measurable cardinal can be embedded as a closed  $C$ -embedded subset of a product of real lines. We study some variations of this well-known theorem.